Bouquet

Lifted aromas of black pepper, cigar box and ripe berry fruits with hints of sage, soft white pepper and caraway seed.

Palate

The palate is complex and fleshy with a delicious blend of mulberries, blackberries and ripe plums. Nuances of Asian five-spice, dark chocolate and white pepper complement the savoury French oak and soft natural acids. The finish is soft and subtle with fine lingering smooth tannins.

Serving and Cellaring

Matured in French oak, this wine can be enjoyed now, or will age gracefully for 5+ years. Decanting is recommended to enhance the complexity of the wine.
